KIRI

“ My name is Kiri, and I am 17. I’ve struggled with panic disorders, including agoraphobia, for as long as I can recall. School was overwhelming, and home wasn’t much better. This led me to Pace Citrus. At Pace, I can be myself; Pace provides me with the safe and supportive environment I crave and is preparing me for my future. I plan to pursue environmental science and eventually run a sustainable farm. It’s important to share my truth and what Pace has done for me; I admire the work of Pace and plan to pay it forward.

“ Pace has been a Godsend for our family. Finding a warm, caring, and family atmosphere for Kiri to thrive in after enduring trauma and suffering with depression and anxiety means everything. Discovering Pace Citrus, and the resources they offer brought hope back to our little family. Kiri is now flourishing and ready to take on senior year!
