ELIETTE

"I don't know where I would be if it wasn't for Pace." Eliette started at Pace when she was in middle school. She was dealing with trauma related to bullying, needed to strengthen her relationship with her parents and get back on track academically. Early on, Eliette exhibited characteristics of a leader. Fearless about speaking up regarding things that matter to her, she constantly advocated for herself and others. Eliette also used her powerful voice through artistic expression, as an active member of the Performing Arts Team. Eliette was able to recover all academic credits needed to move into her right grade. She increased her self-esteem and blossomed into a leader. Now in high school, Eliette stays in close contact with the staff at Pace to share about her good grades and how successful she continues to be.
