JOSILYN

“ Pace supported me tremendously as I worked to catch up academically and graduate early. They even helped me find scholarship money so I could continue my education. Now I am a CNA and I have bought my first car. I am using the rest of my scholarship money to become a phlebotomist and start my own business. Thank you, Pace, for all you’ve done for me. I am so excited about my future!

“ My daughter was recommended for a school for kids who were disruptive in the classroom. Instead, I enrolled her at Pace Alachua. Pace supported my baby and helped her control her anger. Because of the love and support of Pace, Kamiyla entered high school as a sophomore NOT a freshman. Graduation year went from 2027 to 2026!
