KAYLA

"My life took a turn when my parents separated my freshman year of high school. Despite having to move away with my dad and his girlfriend, I excelled in school and was even taking senior classes and getting college credit during my junior year. Then, my dad suddenly decided that he no longer wanted to support me. I moved frequently, staying with various family members in different states. I got so far behind I just dropped out of school. I made my way back to Florida and enrolled in Pace, where, I found the help and support system I needed to excel again. I represented my district in the City of Pensacola Youth Council, was on the Girls Leadership Council and gave the commencement speech at my class of 2021 graduation. I'm now enrolled at Pensacola State College and plan to pursue a career in the medical field."
