Believing in Girls
EMPOWERMENT LUNCHEON

To benefit Pace Center for Girls, Palm Beach
CELEBRATING 25 YEARS OF INSPIRING GIRLS

On Friday, April 8, 2022, Pace Center for Girls, Palm Beach will once again host the Believing in Girls Empowerment Luncheon at the Hilton Palm Beach Airport. This heartwarming and inspirational event will feature remarkable stories from several of our girls and alumnae. We anticipate a large crowd of attendees comprised of local professionals and businesses, philanthropists, and community leaders will join us for this motivational event.

For more information on Pace Center for Girls, Palm Beach, or the event, please contact McKenzie Marsch, Special Project Manager, at 561.512.2323 or mckenzie.marsch@pacecenter.org.

ABOUT PACE CENTER FOR GIRLS, PALM BEACH

Established in 1996, Pace Palm Beach is the only organization in Palm Beach County specifically designed to meet the needs of middle and high school age girls by providing comprehensive academic services, social services, counseling, and life-skills training.

In 2017, Pace Palm Beach established the flagship Reach Therapy Program serving girls beyond the Academic Day Program. This program offers additional social, emotional, behavioral, and mental health counseling to girls in the community ages 8-23 and their families.

All Pace services are provided at no cost. During the 2020-21 school year:

- 97% had no involvement with the juvenile justice system after one year
- 100% improved behavior challenges at Pace

Founded in 1985, Pace Center for Girls serves more than 3,000 girls in 22 locations throughout Florida and Georgia, providing girls and young women an opportunity for a better future through education, counseling, training, and advocacy.

No matter what a girl is dealing with, Pace offers a safe place for them to learn, process, heal and begin again.
