ROXANA

“ During my transformative journey at Pace Center for Girls Miami, I experienced an incredible level of academic and social support that changed the course of my life. Since joining Pace Miami in 2017, I’ve come a long way from having just 7 high school credits to earning my high school diploma. I enrolled at Florida International University, and obtained my bachelor’s degree this past July, and I’m now pursuing a master’s degree in public administration. Pace equipped me with real-world skills, problem-solving abilities for personal and social challenges, as well as supportive academic administrators that I consider my fairy godmothers.

“ As the Board Chair for Pace Center for Girls Miami it has truly been a positive uplifting experience personally and professionally. To have the opportunity to engage, empower and impact our Pace girls in a way that helps them find the great in themselves is priceless. I'm thankful for the chance to be a more informed parent and to give back to my community professionally as a Section Chief in Miami Dade County Government.
