GIANNA

“ Before I came to Pace, I was in an emotionally unsafe school environment. I was constantly bullied. One day, I was on the phone with a friend and she told me about Pace. My Mom and I came for a tour, and we loved it! I have come so far since enrolling at Pace. I have been given several opportunities including my recent trip to Pace’s National Office to represent Pace Hernando on the Girl’s Leadership Council. After completing high school this year at Pace, I would love to attend a trade school that offers automotive studies.
