KRISTIS

"I came to Pace eight months ago because I was skipping classes every day and running away from home. I decided to attend Pace because I didn't want my path to look like the ones my parents went down. Since I started at Pace, I have improved my grades, joined the Girls Leadership Council, and participated in events such as Pace Day at the Capitol. I have been provided many opportunities to develop leadership skills and stretch out of my comfort zone. When I complete my time at Pace, I plan to graduate from my home school and attend a college to major in art. After graduating from college, I plan to start a career as a tattoo artist."
