BRIANNA

Brianna was having a difficult time coping with her past traumas. It was so intense that she developed a substance abuse dependency. Deflated and without any positive outlets, she ended up at Girls Court. Luckily, once referred to Pace Center for Girls, her spirit began to ignite once again. During her intake interview, Brianna said with confidence, "I want to do better and be better," and that is exactly what she did. Through Pace Reach, Brianna has intentionally worked on strengthening her communication and coping skills and has begun practicing and applying techniques to heighten her authentic self. With encouragement, Brianna has started her own art business while developing her art expression skills, taking artwork requests from various customers. She has improved her school attendance, raised her grades to all A's and B's, and graduated high school this past June.
